

THE TIMES.

Local Department.

PENNSYLVANIA R. R.—MIDDLE DIVISION.

On and after June 25th, Trains run as follows:

Table with columns for WESTWARD and EASTWARD, listing train numbers, departure times, and arrival times for various stations like Harrisburg, Pottsville, and Pottsville.

Express West, the Way Passenger Express Harrisburg Daily, the Atlantic Express leaves Harrisburg Daily, the other trains Daily except Sunday.

Brief Items.

Mr. Jacob H. Kleckner of Saville, is the happy father of boy triplets. The mother and children are doing finely, too.

Mr. Geo. B. Arnold has commenced his warfare on the foxes again. Last week he came into our office, bringing a very large red fox which he had just shot.

Mr. Jonas Potter, of Centre twp., had his shoulder pulled out of the socket last week, (Monday), while trying to hold a scared horse. It took three men to pull it into place and then it was only done after chloroform had been given him to relax the muscles.

Two more accidents happened last week at the bridge below Marysville. On Tuesday a man fell from the bridge, and was not hurt as he struck deep water, and swam out. On Wednesday another man met with a like accident with the same result.

Early in October a young man was killed near Eagle Station. The body was recognized by Mrs. Stradle of Harrisburg as that of her son, and she had his remains buried in the Harrisburg cemetery. Last Thursday her son walked in to the house in perfect health, returning as he said from a trip to Lake Michigan. And now the question is, what lad was it that was buried.

Hotel Change.—The Perry House in this place has been leased by Sheriff Williamson who will get possession in time to fit up for January court. He will be happy to receive the calls of his friends.

Drowned.—On Friday a week a little four year old boy named Johnny Troup, residing in Juniata twp., fell into the run during the high water and was drowned. The body was washed some distance, and was not recovered till near half an hour afterwards.

The Gantt House at Newport so long kept by Mr. Gantt, and so favorably known to the public, has been leased by Messrs. J. A. Newcomer & Mr. John S. Ritter who take possession about the 1st of January. Mr. Newcomer has had experience in hotel keeping that justifies us in the belief that he will make the Gantt House the pleasantest stopping place in Newport. To those who know the proprietors we need not make any suggestions, but to those who do not, we say, give them a call.

Fatal Accident.—On Monday evening of last week, Mr. Samuel Houser, residing in Rockville, and employed by the P. R. R. Company as watchman at the bridge over the Susquehanna, fell from the bridge, near the Perry county side. He stepped in a hole which caused the accident. The body was recovered in about two hours and the Coroner of Dauphin county, held an inquest, and the jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

Send us the News.—This is what a wide-awake country editor says: "Send us the news. When anybody dies, gets married, runs away, steals anything, builds a house, makes a big sale, or whips his man—or his wife—breaks his leg, or gets the senses kicked out of him by a mule, or does anything that is any way remarkable, and you have reason to believe that you know as much about the occurrence as anybody else, don't wait for some other person to report it or trust us to find out by instinct, but come and tell us about it, or send the facts on a postal card. This is the way news is supplied, and it takes a goodly supply of that necessary article to make a good paper. See if you can not improve this year, and let us know every item of news that transpires in your neighborhood."

Arrested for Conspiracy.—On information preferred last week by Jacob Kremer, of New Germantown, before Esquire Sutch, of this place, warrants were issued for the arrest of two persons upon the serious charge of conspiring to cheat and defraud the deponent, one Harry Copenhaver, of Mannesville, and Jesse Rowe, of Juniata county, out of various sums of money. One was arrested by Constable Eckert and promptly gave bail for his appearance to answer at the January term of Court, while it is alleged that the other fled the county. Action in the premises grew out of the over-lasse greenback confidence game which was exposed in these columns some few months since.

We refrain from giving the names of the parties arrested until the matter has been further investigated.

Corn Thieves.—On Saturday night Mr. Samuel Derrick, a tenant on the farm of Mr. Forney's farm at the upper boundary of town (formerly owned by Dr. Swartz), made up his mind to stand guard in one of his cornfields, from which the corn was rapidly being spirited off. Before he was on duty long he espied two men, both busily engaged at one shock, when he and a man whom he had engaged for the occasion, started after the intruders who immediately took alarm and fled. The one chap being lively-footed got away (his name is known, however), but the other stumbled and fell into a gutter, when his pursuers overtook him, and we presume the parties will both be dealt with according to law, as it is certainly high time for some of the numerous thieves in this vicinity to be made examples of. —Duncannon Record.

Ticket "Scalping."—On Monday morning says the Altoona Mirror, engineer James Trout, of the middle division P. R. R., was coming to this city from Harrisburg, and when in the cut below Blair Furnace, two and a half miles East of this city, he observed a valise laying alongside the road in the gutter with the contents scattered out. He stopped and secured the valise and contents and put them on the engine where he examined them. They consisted of about fifty dollars worth of clothing, correspondence to New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, and Germany, of certain parties in regard to the sale of "scaly" tickets on the Pennsylvania railroad and other railroad lines even planning omnibus and ferry lines in the scalping process. Two photographs of a man and woman were in the valise.—The correspondence is now in the hands of interested parties who are examining into the matter. The photographs will no doubt lead to the arrest of parties engaged in the business. We can give no explanation of the valise having been so carelessly placed where it was, unless the party or parties were "spotted" on some passenger train and threw it overboard to escape detection.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

A young man named Jesse Baum, hailing from Marysville, Perry county, visited our town on Saturday last and fell into the company of Jack Martin. After drinking together pretty freely, Baum became very much intoxicated, when Jack put him into the stable of the Big Spring Hotel to sleep. When he awoke he found he was minus his watch and three dollars in money. Upon inquiry he found Martin was seen with a watch and money, and a warrant was placed in constable Killian's hands for his arrest. He was released on bail.

On Friday night last, about 11 o'clock as Mr. George Clepper, residing on the turnpike, a short distance west of New Kingston, was returning home from that place, upon reaching the house, he was surprised to find the cellar door open and a light shining therefrom. Upon looking into the cellar he saw three men standing around a meat stand, about to gobble the contents thereof, but upon seeing him they all made for the door, which he shut down and stood upon, in the meantime giving an alarm to the inmates of the house. But the combined strength of the three robbers proved too much for him, and they forced the door open. The first to come out was immediately dropped by a club in the hands of Mr. C., and he soon had another one down, but while struggling with him, the third stabbed Clepper in the back, sufficiently disabling him so as to allow them to beat a hasty retreat, without any booty, however. Upon examination Mr. C.'s wound was found not to be very serious, though he lost considerable blood. In their hurry to leave one of the thieves left a hat on the ground, but as there is no manufacturer's mark about it, it is doubtful if any clue can ever be obtained as to the identity of the parties.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

About 11 o'clock last Wednesday forenoon the house occupied by Wm. Wise, a short distance north of Patterson, took fire, it is not known how. Conjecture has it that a spark from a brush-fire that Wise was managing, a short distance from the house, set fire to the roof, and thus brought on the conflagration. Mr. Wise was considerably burned in his efforts to put out the fire and to save his household effects. The household goods were mostly saved. The house was almost entirely destroyed.

Last Thursday, as Rev. Mr. Berry and Mr. Harvey Yeakly were descending from a bench of Shade mountain in a wagon, their horse became a little too free in his movements. In the effort to restrain the free inclination of the horse, one of the lines broke, and then it went after the fashion of a loose horse in a wagon, on a mountain road going down hill. The wagon was soon lodged upside down against a tree, the shafts all broken to pieces, and the horse speeding like the wind toward the valley, which he reached all right, and brought himself to a halt at a stable where he had been fed. The reverend gentleman and the merchant gathered themselves out of the wreck without injury excepting a few bruises.

On Wednesday of last week, while James Parker was assisting to unload one of Buyers & Kennedy's boats of coal, the rope, which is attached to the derrick, broke near the coal tub, and ran up through the pulley about sixty feet above, unhooking it and causing it to fall upon the head of the person aforesaid, knocking him insensible, and for a time there was fears as to the result. Mr. Parker was conveyed to his home and medical aid summoned. He is again able to be out although he feels very weak. His head, face and one eye is all black and blue, and causes him to suffer considerably. James is to be congratulated upon his narrow escape, as he might have been instantly killed.—Twice-a-week.
